Press Release

Arrow Coated Products (UK) Limited, a fully owned subsidiary of Arrow Coated Products Ltd., India (ACPL), is pleased to announce that the purchase of a factory premises, warehouse and offices in Scunthorpe, North Lincolnshire, United Kingdom, has been completed and will be functioning during the forthcoming quarter.

This facility, along with investment in on-site storage and slitting of master rolls, will compliment ACPL's developing revenue from its patent portfolio and enable ACPL to offer an improved service to European customers, thereby reinforcing its rapidly growing business of HYDROMELTZ™ water-soluble films and other products.

Arrow UK informs: "We have been looking for an opportunity to improve our customer service in Europe and when this opportunity was identified, we moved quickly. This purchase is an integral part of our strategy to manufacture Jumbo rolls of Water Soluble films in India, and convert and customize to European needs within Europe in order to be able to compete locally with our international competitors by offering similar levels of customer service."
